The heart of our work CI, brand design, creative communication concepts and web design

We also love & breathe adv,
editorial design, typography, branding, digital design, photography, color design and much more

Riem Identity SA is a creative and innovative graphic, webdesign and communication agency in Lugano.

We constantly aim for original solutions and, thanks to our know-how and extensive experience, we are able to design and plan customized and high-quality projects for every need and objective.

Love listening to our clients and their needs, dreams, hopes. We give our souls in capturing the unspoken and, through our design skills, translate it in something unpredictable and unique made by images, words, colors – emotions.
